What's new in Epic Character Generator - Season 2: Female Sci-fi:

- Astrology reports, 17 December 2017 This week may be a good time to try to eliminate a major barrier to making peace with yourself. Under stress and pressure, you may tend to discount the amount of pain you inflict on others in order to cope with your own internal pain. By fusing with others, you're taking care of someone else's pain, and this seems to make it easier for you to take care of yourself. However, I suggest that not acknowledging your own unhappiness and pain will keep you in this dangerous state of fused with others, and you really don't want to take that risk. There will always be someone who needs you and who might not be getting his or her true needs met. If you need to repair a relationship you have with someone close to you and it's a recent break-up, it will be harder for you to feel and think about sharing your future well wishes with that person now than it will be when it's been a while. It will feel better for you to wait a few weeks, months or years and then get in touch with that person to tell him or her how you'd like your relationship to develop. This doesn't mean that you won't keep in touch with your ex, just that you're not going to share your future well wishes and wishes for a future together with that person until you've given the relationship proper closure. Your issue with your ex is easily passable now, but it will be a full six months to a year after the relationship ended before you can safely put yourself out there in your current relationship. 2. A new love relationship may be good this week. You are able to shed layers of reticence. This is a week of that type of ambiguity and secretiveness, so you know you can connect with another partner freely. Practicality takes hold and you find a way to communicate through the bond of responsibility. It probably helps to take a specific action in order to connect to another person. It's okay to make compromises, so you realize how well you're fitting into your own relationships now. 3. Your Third House is now your right Tenth House. This is a time when you shouldn't rush into things. After all, you know that you often need to analyze how you feel about things and about the way other people behave. You should explore the functional parts of the Third
